Sport Fish Restoration and Recreational Boating Safety Act of 2012

- The Sport Fish Restoration and Recreational Boating Safety Act of 2012 would reauthorize the Sport Fish Restoration and Boating Trust Fund through the end of fiscal year 2013.
- The Trust Fund is the mainstay of funding for State and Federal sport fish conservation and recreational boating safety efforts in support of the U.S. angling and boating community.
- Types of programs supported by the fund include those dealing with coastal wetlands conservation and restoration, recreational vessel sewage disposal, interstate fishery commissions, multistate conservation grants, and fish restoration projects.
- The Trust Fund receives income from a variety of sources. All moneys received in a given fiscal year are apportioned to the States in the following fiscal year.
